Sightseeing/Excursion Descriptions:

May 18, 2016 ~ Coloniak + Modern Lima
This morning enjoy a tour of the "City of Kings", visiting the Plaza de Armas to see the Municipal Palace and Government Palace. Entrance to the Cathedral of Lima. We continue with a tour of the Convent of San Francisco, to meet the Catacombs. Back to the most modern area of the city, visiting the areas of San Isidro and Miraflores, finally knowing the Love Park and perhaps a look at Larco Mar. Return to hotel.

May 18, 2016 ~ Orphanage Visit & Barranco Tour
After lunch well visit the male orphanage of Lima. We will continue our tour to Barranco. Unfortunately, only a few tourists find their way to the beautiful district of Barranco. Once it was Lima's beach, pleasure and entertainment district for wealthier Limeños (during the colonial and republican times). Barranco was at the beginning of the 20th century home to famous Peruvian writers and artists which gave the district a unique character. Luckily Barranco saved a big part of its colonial charm but as well its special character and charisma. The daily life in Barranco is more relaxed and quieter than in the rest of Lima. The city center invites you to stroll around, visit old colonial and republican houses and enjoy the numerous other amazing sights that Barranco has to offer. As soon the sun goes down Barranco awakes and becomes the place for dancing and partying. The streets around the Parque Municipal (Municipal Park) get crowed. Cozy restaurants offer excellent typical Peruvian food. Pubs, discotheques and nightclubs invite their guests to an exciting night. Barranco, also known for the famous Peruvian peñas stage folkloric music shows, in particular Afro Peruvian and Criollo gigs. You tour will explore the areas of this unique area of Lima.
May 19 – 21, 2016 ~ 3 day/2 night Tambopata Amazon Adventure

Travelling to Tambopata National Reserve offers a unique opportunity to discover a lively biodiversity of birds, Mammals, Reptiles and Trees. Record-setting numbers of animal species are concentrated within small areas, and the variety of plant life is greater than almost anywhere in the world. To help you experience the wonder of this magic place, we have prepared a programmed itinerary for your stay at Inkaterra Hacienda Concepcion.

Day 1 ~ Start your journey arriving to Puerto Maldonado, where our staff will welcome you and provide the necessary information for your stay. Navigate by outboard-motorized canoe along the Madre de Dios River to Inkaterra Hacienda Concepción for approximately 25 minutes. Enjoy LUNCH with organic ingredients and native flavors. After lunch, take a walk through CONCEPCION TRAILS, inside property nature trails, where you will discover and learn about primary and secondary rainforest, its components, uses, transformations by the human being, and its relevance for the world. At dusk, navigate by outboard-motorized canoe, at the TWILIGHT RIVER excursion. By sailing on the Madre de Dios River, you will learn about its ecosystem, Amazonian creeks, nocturnal animals’ behavior and the southern constellations. In the evening, enjoy a nice DINNER in the Casa Grande’s Dining Room.
Day 2 ~ After a nutritious buffet BREAKFAST, get ready for a long trek through terra firma into the Tambopata National Reserve towards LAKE SANDOVAL. Here you will understand why Madre de Dios is called the biodiversity capital of Peru, while learning about the Reserve’s conservation efforts and the lake’s formation. Navigate by dugout canoe across this mirror-like oxbow lake that is home to the endangered giant river otter (Pteronura brasiliensis), black caiman (Melanosuchus niger), and one of the world’s biggest fresh water scaled fish, the paiche (Arapaima gigas). Back to the lodge for LUNCH, and later the INKATERRA CANOPY WALKWAY & ANACONDA WALK await for you. Take a 20-minute ride by outboard-motorized canoe to the Inkaterra Canopy Walkway Interpretation Center where you will learn about its construction and the conservation projects of ITA-Inkaterra Asociación (NGO). Ascend one of the two 98-foot towers (30 m.) and cross the seven hanging bridges that connect the treetops at 91 ft. high (28 m). Enjoy the breathtaking vistas and get the chance to watch white-throated toucans (Ramphastos tucanus), woodpeckers, trogons, squirrel monkeys (Saimiri boliviensis) and the three-toed sloth (Choleopus hoffmani). After descending keep on feeling the incredible primary rainforest energy going along the 200-meter wooden bridge over the swamps (aguajales). You will learn about the fauna and flora of this flooded ecosystem. At night, get ready for an adventure during the HIDDEN RAINFOREST excursion, where you will explore the Amazon rainforest that gives way to nocturnal animals who display intriguing behavior patterns, and enhanced senses as adaptation mechanisms. Listen to nocturnal living nature sounds, and penetrate this hidden world. End up your day with a pleasant DINNER.
Day 3 ~ After BREAKFAST buffet, take a ride back to Puerto Maldonado by outboard motorized canoe. Arrive at the Butterfly House where you may wait for your flight back home or to your next destination, while visiting this beautiful BUTTERFLY HOUSE and learning about the fascinating transformation of these colorful insects, bred in our laboratory.

May 21, 2016 ~ Cusco City Tour
In the afternoon, enjoy a guided tour of Cusco city, visiting Main Square and Koricancha (or Temple of the Sun). We continue with a visit to the most important archaeological remains of the inca empire in the area: Qenko, Tambo Machay, Puka Pukará and Sacsayhuamán.

May 22, 2016 ~ Machu Picchu Tour
This morning, we will board the Expedition train to Aguas Calientes town, where a local guide awaits to escort us. Our luggage will be transferred to the hotel and our guides will take us on a 25 minute ride on a switchback road that leads us to the entrance of Machu Picchu. Enjoy a guided tour for 3 hours and then, lunch at Indio Feliz. Return in bus to Aguas Calientes town and walk to our hotel.
May 29, 2016 ~ Lake Titikaka (Uros + Taquile + Amantani)
Transfer from the hotel to the port and by motor boat we take you to one of the legendary Uros Islands where you can observe the lives of the Uros people who live on floating reed islands, some only 20 meters in length. After a beautiful 3hr boat ride we reach Amantani Island where we will break into smaller groups to stay with the local families. You have the opportunity to trek to the top of the mountain (4150 mtrs) to see the Temples of the Pachamama and Pachatata and enjoy the traditional customs of the island people. Food and authentic music prepared and performed by your designated family. Then we will continue to the neighboring Taquile Island, where we will tour around the ruins and visit these beautiful people, world famous for their intricate and fascinating weavings, then return trip to Puno with and afternoon arrival we will transfer back to our hotel.
Welcome / Welcome

Welcome to the website of the Home of San Pedro, a place that welcomes orphaned children from the poorest families of Cusco and its surroundings. We invite you to learn more about our angelitas, our mission and our history.

Welcome to the website of San Pedro Home, a home to orphaned girls from the poorest families in Cusco and its surroundings. We invite you to learn more about our mission and our story.

The mission

Home mission “San Pedro” is taking care of the basic needs of orphaned girls, providing FEED or is, clothing, health care and integral education to prepare citizens able to build a family and a free, peaceful, unified society, justice and solidarity. The center welcomes orphaned children from the poorest families of Cusco and its surroundings. Mercy religious missionaries are like mothers to these or as and care and accompany with love and responsibility from his early childhood until they can fend for themselves. One of the most significant contributions is its presence and commitment in adult personal development of girls. With the support of the adult lay staff is referring to their lives. They shared their food, their moments of recreation, its domestic activities. Serving them as guí spiritual as, give these girls the meaning of love, work, honesty and honor. The girls who come to the orphanage, lack of family support, their cr situation is tica is certified by the authorities of the place of origin.
The mission El Hogar "San Pedro" is to take care of the basic needs of orphan girls, providing them with food, clothing, health care, and education. We also need to prepare them to become citizens capable of building a family and living in a free, peaceful, just, and unified society. Located in Cusco, Peru, El Hogar "San Pedro" (St. Peter’s Orphanage) is an orphanage for girls from the poorest families in Cusco and surrounding towns. The Our Lady of Mercy Sisters (not related to the American order) serve as mothers for these girls and care for them with love and responsibility in childhood and through their transition into adulthood. Girls living in the orphanage have both parents lost or abandoned by their families. In addition to meeting their basic needs, like nutrition, clothing, and health care, home "San Pedro" focuses on their comprehensive development. One of the most significant contributions of the Mercedarian Sisters adult is their presence and commitment to the girls' personal development. They are the only adults in the lives of these girls who have suffered such loss. By sharing meals, listening to details of their daily lives, giving lots of affection, teaching domestic chores, disciplining within freedom, and serving as spiritual guides, the sisters give the girls an understanding of love, work, honesty, and honor.
