Purdue University Study Abroad:
Contemporary Issues in International Public Health (Core University Course)
(Undergraduate and Graduate)

The best of Peru – with Service Project too!

South America – Peru
(Lima/Amazon/Cusco/Lake Titicaca/Machu Picchu)
Maymester 2016: May 17th – 31st

Interested? Contact Dr. McGlothlin at jdm3@purdue.edu
Approximate Cost ~$2950

What’s Included:
• Round trip transportation to airports and hotels
• Housing
• Breakfasts, some lunches, welcome and farewell dinners
• Cultural Excursions
• Service Project (orphanage)
• Tuition for the course
• Health Insurance

Not Included:
• Other meals & entertainment
• Airfare

Presidential Travel Scholarship $1,000 available

Academic Information:
Course taught by:
James McGlothlin, MPH PhD CPE
Professor Emeritus
School of Health Sciences
Email: jdm3@purdue.edu

For more information please contact Dr. McGlothlin by email or our secretary located In HAMP – 1163 School of Health Sciences Phone: (765)494-6290

Get started and register now – spaces are limited
https://www.studyabroad.purdue.edu/faculty/departmental_programs/

“The use of traveling is to regulate imagination by reality, and instead of thinking how things may be, to see them as they are.” – Samuel Johnson